NEWS & RESOURCES

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF SAFETY PROFESSIONALS

ASSP Introduces Immersive Virtual Education Series in August

Occupational safety and health professionals facing the challenges of shrinking travel budgets and widespread physical distancing can stay current on best practices through a new series of virtual education events from the American Society of Safety Professionals (ASSP).

Learn more about ASSP's new SafetyFOCUS virtual education series by visiting SafetyFOCUS.assp.org.

Diversity, Equity and Inclusion - ASSP Taking Steps

A board-level task force is being formed and will guide the development of a recommended strategy and action plan to help ASSP better support a diverse membership reflective of the occupational safety and health (OSH) profession.

The task force will include members from ASSP's common interest groups as well as other safety and health professionals who want to help advance the Society through inclusivity.

Applications for the task force are being taken now! For more information go to Diversity, Equity and Inclusion

Weve got some History!!

Just Released: The Archives of Safety and Health, Volume 3, Number 3

This is the latest quarterly journal publication of the Safety and Health Historical Society.
